Whoever we are, whether Muslim or Christian, whether student or worker, what ever walk of life or political allegiance we have a common cause in defence of our dignity and the rights of all. We ought not to submit to the role assigned to us by the Bushes and Blairs of this world. We ought not to submit to the role of being spectators or victims. Let us stand as one with the resistance throughout the globe, including the people of the United States who who are defiantly resisting the wars and anti-humanitarian measures of the Bush administration. The task is to consolidate the anti-war movement to bring to power an anti-war pro-people government with arrangements that put human beings at the centre. This is the task of the hour.

Bring all the troops home from foreign soil!
End the attack on humanity!
